

David Thompson

David Thompson is Vice President – Seniors Care & Clinical Support Services. In this role, he is responsible for the Elder Care Program (residential services, rehabilitation services, geriatric acute medicine and mental health and assisted living services), PHC's Seniors Strategy, PHC's Chronic Disease Management Strategy, Hospice & Palliative Care Services, Providence Lifeline Program, Lower Mainland Consolidated (LMC) Biomedical Engineering Services, PHC Liaison for LMC Laboratory Services, Diagnostic Imaging and Pharmacy Services, Site Leaders for St. Vincent's – Langara, Brock Farhni, Honoria Conway and Youville Residence and Holy Family Hospital. He is also the Seniors Leadership Team Liaison for the Tapestry Foundation.

Prior to his current position, David was Corporate Director for Seniors Care and Elder Care Program Director at PHC.

David has worked in Residential Services and Information Management with the Fraser Health Authority in British Columbia. He also worked in Information Management with Providence Health Care in Vancouver prior to joining Fraser Health. David's career also includes Director roles in the field of Quality & Utilization Improvement in British Columbia.

David holds a Master of Health Sciences (Health Administration) from The University of Toronto and a Certificate in Health Promotion & Adult Education from the University of Western Ontario.

David is a member of the Canadian College of Health Leaders (CCHL) and is Chair of the Lower Mainland Chapter Executive Council for CCHL. He is a Certified Health Executive (CHE) of the Canadian College of Health Leaders. He is also a Surveyor with Accreditation Canada. David recently completed his Executive Training in Research Application (EXTRA) Fellowship through the Canadian Health Services Research Foundation. David has served on many provincial committees and task forces throughout his career in Seniors Care, Residential Services, Information Manager and Quality & Utilization Improvement.